March 1, 2018

The Honorable Edward Shea
United States District Court Judge
United States Courthouse
825 Jadwin Avenue
Richland, WA 99352

Dear Judge Shea:

Most people who know me wouldn't believe that I would commit a criminal offense. This is the worst thing that has ever happened to me, and I brought it all on myself. I realize my actions have consequences, and how negatively this has affected the United States, my own community, and most of all, my family. My actions do not reflect the way I was raised, or who my parents are. What I did was selfish, self-centered, and down-right stupid.

Had I known that my actions involved violations of United States laws, or that my conduct would inflict so much harm to so many people I would never have done it. As time goes by, there is not a day that passes without me thinking about the pain I have caused and the pain I am still causing.

So I write to you today not as a man who is looking for sympathy, but rather as a man who recognizes his guilt, the suffering I have caused, and as a person who will live everyday with this experience as a reminder of how badly I have messed up.

Sincerely,

Adam Goldring
